Welcome Message

I am intended to bring back the lost heritage of Indian Ayurveda to improve the healing process and treat from complicated ailments. I spent my whole childhood in a village that kept me close to the nature while I got to know about different herbs & plants and their medicinal benefits. Being raised into a freedom fighter family we were taught to be self dependent and make use of natural resources rather being depended on others. With all these thoughts & believes in mind, I am aiming to make a healthy and wise society to transform Indian citizen to better healthyzen. My intensive studies on Indian Ayurveda help me to know that only by living a holistic life, we can avoid 5000 type of diseases.

It is found that surprisingly right foods can make wonder to our body, starting from providing right nourishment to protecting from any diseases. Further studies on maintaining health using natural process brought me about the concept of Blue zone, where people live more than 100 years without any complex diseases like BP, Diabetes, Heart diseases, Liver disorder, Kidney failure, cancer, PCOD & PCOS etc. Even they are able to keep themselves away from doctors. In addition to that, there are 48 millions of animal other than human being living in this earth, even they are not dependent on doctors & hospitals rather they meet all their need from Mother Nature. All these studies help me to understand the root cause of all diseases, are wrong food choices & undigested waste material deposited within the digestive track & colon. According to Ayurveda, undigested food & waste material aggresses VATA (air). This aggravated vata when mixed with PITTA (Fire) & KAPHA (Water), create imbalance of elements within the body & this situation creates different types of medical diseases. Continuous deposition of waste & undigested food materials with in the body creates harm to the mucus membrane. These destroyed mucus membrane deposited as Ama and pass through blood within different organs like poison. Thus my moto is to spread the awareness on my findings that “Food is medicine & medicine is only Food”. I want to unfold the best and proved natural remedy for all the chronic disease with the help of my knowledge & use holistic approach.

Mentor's Desk

My name is Partho Chakroborty. Involving in spreading network business across India for last 22 years. During my journey with networking industry, I have observed that more than 95% networking company involved into health & nutraceutical business, or even product manufacturing company, are based on profit motives, while they manufacturing their products they uses pesticides, chemicals & even steroids therefore the end consumer suffers. This is due to the drawback with modern medicines & medicinal side effect. Now many of the so called natural products are adulterated as because they wanted to let their consumer get their benefit faster. Its now on common problem that medicine cannot cure a single diseases rather they generate more diseases & people become the victim of the visor circle of diseases. So I am frustrated with medicine & networking company. All of a sudden by the grace of the god I got the opportunity to work as a mentor of Feonnaa herbals, a herbal product company. I feel god has given me a unique opportunity to work with Feonnaa as all the products of the feonnaa are natural & it works on the cellular level.
